Dear Friends,

Because this newsletter covers both months December and January, it also covers the beginnings of a new liturgical year and a new calendar year. The season of Advent, which points forward to the birth of Christ and his triumphal return, begins each new liturgical year. This year, our gospel focus will be on Luke, a master storyteller and engaging writer. Luke gives us the good Samaritan, the prodigal son, the promise to the thief on the cross that he will be with Jesus in paradise, and other powerful stories of God's grace.

With the new calendar year, we will thank outgoing elders and deacons and ordain and install new officers. We are blessed to have many capable people who serve the Lord and this church faithfully through the Session and Board of Deacons. This year's transition to new leaders will be on January 5th.

The work of the church is coordinated by five primary session ministries, or committees. They are Caring, which will be chaired in 2025 by Betsy Marlowe and is primarily responsible for all the events in the Fellowship Hall that involve food -- think potluck suppers, wassail during Advent, our annual Thanksgiving feast, etc. The Caring Ministry meets on the first Monday of the month at 6:00 p.m. at church. Christian education in our congregation is overseen by the Discipleship Ministry. In 2025, Discipleship will be chaired by James Jackson. This committee reviews curriculum, approves Sunday school teachers, schedules our annual Vacation Bible School, and more. Their meetings are on the second Sunday of the month, immediately following worship. Mission and Outreach, chaired in 2025 by Laura Phipps, oversees our involvement with and benevolent giving to causes beyond our church walls such as Pasadena Community Ministries, Project Joy and Hope, and Habitat for Humanity. This ministry also has a role to play in the special denominational offerings that are collected four times a year and in outreach that we do as a congregation, such as Taco and a Prayer. Mission and Outreach meets on the second Monday of the month at 1:00 at church. The Stewardship Ministry, headed by Brett Coe, oversees the upkeep of our facility and grounds and the finances of the church. Stewardship meets on the Wednesday prior to the session meeting each month at 2:00 at the church. Our Worship and Music Ministry sounds self-explanatory. This ministry also oversees the chancel flowers, the Hanging of the Greens, and the recruitment of people to light the candles on the Advent wreath each year. In 2025 it will be chaired by Barry Webb. Worship meets by Zoom on the first Monday of each month.

All of these ministries are open to new members. Speak to one of the ministry chairs if you are interested in getting more involved. You will be enthusiastically welcomed! Like everything else in life, the more engaged each of us is in the church, the more our life is blessed. Pray for our ministries and be a blessing to others!

Grace and peace to you all,

The Rev. Dr. Fairfax F. Fair, pastor

Young at Heart met on third Thursday and had a total of 13 Lucky friends. We heard prayers and meditation by Helen Steiner Rice. We had two door prize drawings donated by Linda Ross and Joan G. Glenda K. and Ruth A. were the recipients of many goodies (with all the calories thoughtfully removed). Ruth gave us a preview of trips to come in the new year. (Yes, it's almost December). Then we heard from the Centerfold of the Fireman's 2025 calendar, Jean Johnston. We're so sorry that you fell, Jean, and most thankful that you weren't hurt. But we're even more grateful for the story!!!! We retired to the game tables, with thanks to Marvin who always sets out our games. Elois and Brian took the first Hand and Foot game, and Liz and Nancy the second. Jean and I let them win. There was a lot of noise from the Chickenfoot game, so I think they all won! Glenda went to Marcos and got all the specials, and they were enjoyed by everyone. Thank you, Glenda. It was a fun day, and we hope you will come visit with us next month, December 19th, at 10:00 am. Let's bring sandwiches, salads or desserts! Elois has the door prize. Hugs, Joan

Matthew 22:37-39

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Bethlehem Market

For the 18th year, First Presbyterian can be your one stop shopping spot for Christmas! If you need a unique gift for someone who has everything, then why not shop at the Bethlehem Market? The Bethlehem Market is an alternative gift market where you can select mission “gifts” in honor of someone which range from providing help for people displaced by disasters to buying a flock of chickens to providing personal necessities for a veteran and more. You donate to your favorite mission, and you will be given a gift card to send to the person you are honoring.

- ♦ You may “shop” before and after the worship service on December 8, 15, and 22.
- ♦ You may mail or put in the secure mailbox your form and a check written to the church and receive acknowledgement cards through the mail.

The forms are in the narthex and this newsletter, and on the church website.

Thank you for shopping with us!

Pasadena Community Ministries is always in need of food, especially at this time of year. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please mail or drop in the secure box at church a check made out to First Presbyterian Church with the designation PCM. You may also donate at fpcpasadena.org under Donate, then send an email to kimberly@fpcpasadena.org so she can direct the donation to PCM.

OUT OF CHAOS, HOPE

Seafarer Christmas Boxes – Christmas 2024 Update

Boxes, boxes, where to put them all? What a wonderful problem for the hardworking chaplains and staff of the Seafarer Center to have, and they want the problem to increase with even more boxes! You can still add boxes if you have not finished yours. Stocking caps are still available and plastic shoe boxes become an extra gift for the seafarer.

When the 76 boxes that were lovingly prepared by both congregation members individually and the ladies of the Presbyterian Women were delivered to the Seafarer Center, it brought the total of boxes received to 3,356 thus far. However, the chaplains and staff of the center are hoping for at least another 5,000 or more boxes to come in over the course of the next few weeks.

As can be seen looking at the floor, the chapel at the center is almost half full with a pile that is six foot high. The boxes from our church ended up stacked directly in front of the alter and are ready to be bagged for delivery.

Hallways, the center board room, under tables and any other empty space becomes a place to store boxes.

Every single box shown and all of the rest that will come in will be distributed by the chaplains to grateful seafarers until the supply runs out. This starts on the Monday after Thanksgiving and seafarers, especially non-Christian seafarers, are amazed to receive a gift such as this.

The Houston Seafarer Center has a world wide reputation for outstanding generosity and wonderful facilities for seafarers to rest and relax while they are in port.
